

Top Talent Program - Serbia

Apply for a paid internship and kickstart your career at msg global solutions!

Top Talent program by msg global solutions aims to gather individuals who are willing to strive for excellence and groom their careers fast. We are looking for candidates who are ready to face various challenges within different environments, people, and cultures. Our program brings together the best students or graduates from technical faculties, mostly focused on information systems, technologies, with business mindset.

What do you need to get started?

- Studies in fields of Information Technology, Computer Science, Business Informatics or equivalent
- Knowledge of Java or SQL
- English Proficiency
- Willingness to learn about insurance & finance business processes and gain industry knowledge
- Good presentation and communication skills
- Interest to work in an international team
- Be flexible and adaptable in a changing business environment

What's in it for you?

- 3 months paid internship
- A chance to get familiar with the IT consulting world and start your career with us
- Learning about SAP solutions, ABAP programming language, different industries
- Building your client-facing skills
- Fast growth of your professional career
- Strengthening your professional and soft skills
- Daily support by your mentor and coaches
- A chance to get full-time employment and stay after the internship as a part of a knowledge-driven team

Selection process

Our selection process consists of several stages through which we want to understand your experience and motivation. We want to get to know you both on a personal and professional level. Finding the right internship can be tough, so we want to make the selection process easy for you. Here's what you can expect, step-by-step:

