We invite talented students, university graduates, and professionals with no prior experience who are looking for a career change to enroll in our Maintenance course.

This course is designed to help you become a competent DevOps or systems engineer in the next few years. You will get some hands-on experience in a production environment, and learn new skills, that will help you start your journey into the gaming industry.

A rich study program in the form of online lectures, group feedback sessions, and practical tasks awaits you.

The next step after the online course is a paid on-site internship in our Vilnius, Belgrade, or Nicosia office. This is your chance to become a part of the international Wargaming team.

What will you learn?

- This program will give you basic skills to maintain and operate our games and services.
- You will learn crash DevOps and Operations course, starting with Linux foundation skills and finishing by implementing your own project in your own K8S cluster.
- Our course includes basic (but not easy) skills in many IT disciplines, such as security, networking, monitoring/observability, containerization & virtualization, operating systems, software engineering and automation, and so on.

How will you benefit?

- You will know Linux like no one else.
- You will be able to debug and trace anything you need.
- You will have a huge playground in which to put your skills to use.
- You will be needed. Always. Even AI won't replace your role.

What are we looking for?

- Basic knowledge of Linux;
- Basic programming skills (any of scripting languages);
- Good English language skills;
- Good teamwork skills;
- Fast learners;
- The desire to work at Wargaming.

What will help you stand out?

- Game development experience;
- Knowledge of Python;
- Knowledge of DevOps toolsets.
