I am a passionate graphic designer defined as extremely communicative, ambitious, persistent, creative, positive, grounded and above all, hardworking person. I have dealt in graphic design for eight years now and gained a lot of experience and skill. I always do my best to reach perfection as much as possible, and I refuse to ever give up. I truly love my job because for me it means growth and fulfillment. I am eager to learn and improve my skills, as well as gain new ones. I would like to be part of a great team of creative people with whom I can prosper, and an asset to the company I work in as well.
